Treating you differently

How we use your medical records

Important information for patients

- This practice handles your data and medical records in-line with current laws (GDPR) on data protection and confidentiality. All staff involved with your data have received training on this. Your data may be stored by The Spire Hospital, Nottingham, The Park Hospital, Nottingham and/or by Dr Emma Pooley.
- We share medical records with those who are involved in providing you with care and treatment. Any sharing of data will be done in a secure, approved manner complying with the current data regulations.
- We share information when the law requires us to do so, for example, to prevent infectious diseases from spreading or to check the care being provided to you is safe.
- You have the right to be given a copy of your medical record.
- You have the right to object to your medical records being shared with those who provide you with care.
- You have the right to object to your information being used for medical research and to plan health services.
- You have the right to have any mistakes corrected and to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office. Please see the practice privacy notice on the website or speak to a member of staff for more information about your rights.
- This is my brief data policy. For more information please contact my secretary for my Full Patient Privacy Notice via her contact details on my website www.dremmapooley.co.uk
