

Dr Emma Pooley

Treating you differently

How we use your medical records

Important information for patients

- This practice handles your data and medical records in-line with current laws (GDPR) on data protection and confidentiality. All staff involved with your data have received training on this. Your data may be stored by Dr Emma Pooley and or/The Park Hospital. Any data required for, and relating to, a face to face appointment may be stored by the organization where the appointment has been made.
- We share medical records with those who are involved in providing you with care and treatment. Any sharing of data will be done in a secure, approved manner complying with the current data regulations.
- We share information when the law requires us to do so, for example, to prevent infectious diseases from spreading or to check the care being provided to you is safe.
- You have the right to be given a copy of your medical record.
- You have the right to object to your medical records being shared with those who provide you with care.
- You have the right to object to your information being used for medical research and to plan health services.
- You have the right to have any mistakes corrected and to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
- This is my brief data policy. For more detailed information please contact me for my Full Patient Privacy Notice via the contact details on my website www.dremmapooley.co.uk